Would you like to provide a young adult point of view within the Friends of the Tigard Library? Support the Friends activities and library services? Help spread the word about the Friends organization to students throughout Tigard and recruit teens to get involved? Support the Friends efforts to raise funds for library programs and services? The Friends of the Tigard Public Library is a group of people dedicated to promoting, enhancing and expanding the services the Library provides our community by raising money to fund library programs, materials, art displays and more. The group is a nonprofit organization that is independent from the library.
